YOUR INSTRUCTORS:

Jeremy Lloyd began working at Tremont in 1996. He has a degree in English from Calvin College and a Masters of Fine Arts in writing from the University of North Carolina-Greensboro. He has written for a number of national publications including Gray's Sporting Journal, Sojourners, The Sun, Smokies Life, Smoky Mountain Living and North Carolina Literary Review. He directs Tremont's summer camps, hiking programs, college consortiums, and family camps, and teaches several courses in the Southern Appalachian Naturalist Certification Program. He is the author of Great Smoky Mountains National Park Pocket Guide & Journal and A Home In Walker Valley: The Story of Tremont.

Wanda DeWaard has shared Earth Kinship and Environmental Awareness with people of all ages and a wide variety of backgrounds in community groups, schools, colleges, camps, environmental centers and teacher conferences since 1974. She holds a Masters degree in Recreation and Environmental Education and has directed youth and family programs all over the United States as well as in Canada and Germany. Currently, Wanda works as an outdoor educator in the Great Smoky Mountains area. Anything and everything in the natural world brings out her enthusiasm and contagious sense of fun. She can be contacted at Earthkin@bellsouth.net.
